Day 01: Cusco – Sacred Valley.

Upon arrival into Cusco you will be met by your guide then transferred to your hotel in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. A vast green valley that sprawls out far below Machu Picchu, the Sacred Valley's diversity of microclimates made it an important source of food for the Incan Empire and is a place where many continue to live as they have for hundreds of years. En route we visit the market of Písaq where you can enjoy the colorful displays of handcrafted items and silver jewelry while wandering down the bustling aisles. Arrive at your accommodation early afternoon. Remainder of the day at leisure

Day 02: Ollantaytambo – Moray – Maras.

Today we start our exploration of the Sacred Valley with a visit to Ollantaytambo, a formidable stone structure of immense terraces set into the mountain slopes – this was the site of the Incas' greatest victory over the Spanish during the wars of conquest. From here we continue on to Moray, an archaeological site known for its unusual Inca ruins mostly made up of circular terraces that at first glance, resembles ancient Greek or Roman amphitheaters. An extraordinary feature of the site is the vast difference in temperature between the top and the bottom levels of the ruin, leading researchers to believe that was possibly used by the Inca to study the effects of different climatic conditions on crops.

Last stop is Salineras. Spectacular salt mines that have been around for hundreds of years and are still in use today.

Day 05: Cusco.

This morning starts with a city tour of Cusco. We explore the Cathedral on the Plaza de Armas and the Qoricancha (Temple of the sun). From here we make our way to the ruins of Sacsayhuaman.

Located on a hill that overlooks the city, these ruins are another example of an imposing display of Incan architecture. Compiled of massive stones, the largest of which is thought to weigh as much as 200 tons, these immense terrace walls were cut and placed with such amazing precision and without a single drop of mortar to hold them in place. This tour can be tailored to suit your tastes.

Perhaps explore the shops and meander through the bustling market in Cusco, where the locals buy their produce or you may want to visit the workshop of a local weaver, a wonderful way to get an overview of Andean weaving (notice required to arrange).
